1 Who was it, Lord, that touched you?

Who ven-tured from the crowd?

Who was it brushed your gar-ment at risk of shame un-told?

A

Let it be me, Lord Je-sus, who dares the touch of faith. Let me move in your sha-dow through bound-ry lands of death.

B

mf Baritone solo or a few voices

2 Who was it felt your pow-er trans-mit-ted by a touch?

Who, Lord, in gen-tly brush-ing, re-sist-ed need to clutch?

May I to-day, Lord, bold-ly in pres-ence of your saints, touch you by
